JUL 29 1954

Dear Friend:

I have received your letter of 26 June 1954 with great interest and appreciation and have given it to those who will act upon it. For your information and interest, an important survey mission will arrive soon [] in an endeavor to accomplish those things that you suggest. In the meantime there are plans to meet more urgent economic needs.

I can assure you that we believe strongly in the inherent stability of the Government [] and are making every effort to keep it so.

Faithfully yours,
